INDIANS VICTORS OVER TRINITY

Papooses Defeat Camp Eustis

Saffelle Makes Forty-Yard Run For Touchdown

William and Mary's hard working, battle-scarred scrubs played an excellent brand of football last Saturday, and defeated Camp Eustis by the score of 6-0. A forty-yard run by Saffelle in the last quarter resulted in the lone score of the contest.

The soldiers had a strong line and a fast backfield and several times threatened to score, but on each occasion the scrub line stiffened and Camp Eustis was forced to kick.

During the first half the two teams seemed evenly matched; but in the last periods, the scrubs plainly demonstrated their superiority and kept the ball in enemy territory a greater part of the time. Several costly fumbles prevented the Papooses from making a larger score.

Duncon, who played fullback for the scrubs, put up a good defense game. Gold, Captain Tennis, Evans and Turpin showed up well on the offense, and Charlie Duke was a tower of strength on the line. Lieutenant Price was the luminary for the Camp Eustis eleven. Price was formerly a backfield man at Lehigh University.

Other soldiers who played well and who had had previous experience on collegiate elevens were: Monticenos, former guard at Syracuse University; Kimball, from Annapolis, and Newcomb, backfield player at the University of California.

The Camp Eustis team had a large number of followers and a band which vainly tried to drown out the cheering of the Orange and Black rooters.

The line-up:

W. & M. Scrubs	Pos.	Camp Eustis

Thanksgiving Dances Announced

The Cotillion Club met Monday evening at 7 o'clock in chapel and decided to hold the Thanksgiving dances on Thursday and Friday nights, December 8th and 9th. The Garber-Davis Orchestra will be engaged to furnish the music.

Several other matters of importance were discussed.

Dr. Dillard and Mrs. Munford Address Freshman Class

Dr. James H. Dillard, Rector of the Board of Visitors, and Mrs. B. B. Munford, a member of the Board, addressed the Freshman Class on Friday morning, October 20th, at chapel exercises for that class.

Dr. Chandler presided and introduced Dr. Dillard, who said that there were three things above all that a college should teach: First, knowledge; second, the power to acquire more knowledge; and, third, culture.

Mrs. Munford followed Dr. Dillard, addressing her remarks particularly to the girl students, contrasting the time when she was growing up when it was not considered the thing to do for a girl to attend college with the present, when there are over 300 girls at conservative old William and Mary in old-fashioned Williamsburg. "And that time," she assured her audience, "was not a hundred years ago."

Mr. Geo. P. Coleman, Vice-Rector of the Board, and Senator G. Walter Mapp were present at the exercises but they did not speak, owing to the lack of time.

Addition To Library Under Way

Very significant and prophetic is the fact that the library at William and Mary will soon be doubled in size and capacity by an extensive addition to the present buildings. The construction work is now not only under way, but is progressing rapidly, and indications are that the work will be completed within three months.

With the completion of the addition, the library building will have the shape of the letter "H," the present rear wing, or stack room, connecting

The old men now in College are W. L. Person, J. C. Phillips, E. W. Brauer, J. O. Faison, F. C. Sproul, and J. H. Garnett.

Alpha Kappa Psi is a national commercial fraternity having chapters located at the leading commercial schools of the country. Last year chapters were installed at University of Virginia and Washington and Lee University. The national now has twenty-six chapters.

NAVY DAY

Friday, October 27th

Friday, October 27th, 1922, will be celebrated throughout the country as Navy Day. The Navy and the Navy Department will cooperate with the patriotic societies, the press, the moving picture industry, and other organizations of citizens and agencies of publicity to emphasize on this day the past and present services of the Navy of the nation.

All classes will be adjourned for the twelve o'clock period in order that every student and professor may attend the special exercises in the chapel. The principal speaker for the occasion will be Admiral Andrews, Commandant of the Norfolk Navy Yard. Other former Naval officers that will be present and probably take part in the program are Captain W. W. Joynes, Coach Ingram, Professor Gwathmey, and Mr. Herbert Chandler.

Alumni of Peninsula Hold Good Meeting

An enthusiastic meeting of the alumni of the lower Peninsula, at which were also present Coach "Bill" Ingram, Coach Driver, and Professor W. T. Hodges, of the faculty, was held at the Warwick Hotel in Newport News on Thursday night, October 19. The meeting was called for the purpose of working out means for backing the athletic policy of the College, and more particularly for boosting attendance at William and Mary games played in Eastern Virginia. The Gallaudet game, to be played in Newport News on November 18th, received especial attention, a committee being appointed to endeavor to secure an attendance of from 4,000 to 5,000 people.

The high light of the meeting was the adoption of a resolution requesting Mayor Hiden to declare the day of the Gallaudet game "William and Mary Day" by public proclamation. J. E. Wilkins said: "We will furnish a hundred automobiles, or two hundred if necessary, to get the William and Mary students and teams here to see the games." He said further that he wanted to see the team play in Newport News next year and that the organization would be willing to bring the team and students to that city free of charge.

Howard H. Lackey, who was elected chairman, presided at the meeting. The principal speakers were Coach

William and Mary Indians won their second consecutive game from Trinity when they forced the Methodist eleven to lower its colors last Saturday at Norfolk. The closeness of the game is reflected in the 13 to 7 score. An otherwise thrilling game was marred at times by fumbling by both teams. But after all is said and done, it was a good football game and thoroughly enjoyed by the 4000 spectators who evinced lively interest throughout the entire game.

In the opening quarter, Coach Ingram's charges literally swept the "Bull Durham" aggregation off its feet and steam rolled down the field for their first score. Trinity stiffened during the second quarter and, assisted by two costly fumbles by William and Mary, prevented further scoring. The third quarter opened with Hastings' beautiful seventy-yard run from the kickoff which placed the ball on the ten-yard line. Levvy ran the necessary distance for the Indians' second touchdown.

After Hastings' run, Trinity not only braced, but staged a series of line drives and dazzling forward passes that kept the Indians continuously on the defense. Trinity scored their only touchdown by an overhead attack, which they started on the fifty-yard line.

In the final quarter, the advantage rested with first one team and then the other. William and Mary was threatening to score during the final minutes of the conflict.

Indians Lug Ball Through Line

The first quarter opened with Trinity kicking off to William and Mary, and by line plunges and short, but well executed end runs, the Indians plowed down the field for a touchdown.

A series of end runs by White and Levvy and line plunges by Hastings carried the ball on five successive first downs across the goal line. William and Mary's forwards opened up holes and the backs plunged through. Trinity seemed unable to halt or delay the powerful Indian drive.

Hastings' spectacular run for seventy yards on the kickoff opened the third quarter and paved the way for the Indians' second score. Captain Levvy carried the ball over on a beautiful ten-yard end run. Hastings missed the extra point from a placement kick.

Trinity Turns On Indians

After this play, Coach Steiner's men braced and, with forward passes and short line bucks, carried the oval to the thirty-five yard line where Smith

Alpha Zeta Chapter Of Kappa Alpha Entertains

Alpha Zeta Chapter of the Kappa Alpha Fraternity entertained on Wednesday evening, October 25th, from 7 to 9 P. M. at the Debtors' Prison Tea Room. A delightful supper was served, and several short talks were made.

Those present were—from the active chapters—Messrs. Young, Tennis, Maclin, Green, Perdue, Cooke, West, Ginn, Andrews, Moncure, Gravely, and Irvine, from the student body; Messrs. Andrews, Irwin, Cecil, Harrison, Lewis, Robinson, Irby, Seay, Young, Love, Minneschmidt, and Savage. Dr. J. A. C. Chandler, President of the College, and Dr. Montgomery, Professors Gwathmey and W. E. Davis, of the faculty were also present. The visitors were Messrs. Dovell, Tennis and Spencer Lane, of Williamsburg; John Weymouth, Paul Tabb, and Melvin Tennis, of Hampton; Julian Brooks, of the Medical College of Virginia, and Cyrus W. Beale, of Richmond, the latter Province Commander of the Kappa Alpha Order.

Shewmake Chosen Juvenile Justice

Distinguished Lawyer Appointee In Fourteenth Circuit

Oscar L. Shewmake, of the faculty of the College of William and Mary, has been chosen by Judge D. Gardiner Tyler as justice for the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court for the Counties of James City, York, and Warwick, and for the City of Williamsburg. Mr. Shewmake will be appointed at the December term of court and will take over the active duties of his new office January 1, 1923.

This arrangement will give to the lower counties of the Fourteenth Circuit a centralized court, presided over by an experienced lawyer and eminent student of public affairs. Mr. Shewmake is a graduate of William and Mary and of the University of Virginia, is a former counsel and executive assistant to the State Tax Board, and counsel to the State Corporation Commission.

—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Rally Shows Im- provement In Spirit

Over three hundred enthusiastic rooters answered the call Friday night, assembled in the Chapel, and for twenty minutes filled the air with various yells and a high grade of college spirit. The cheerers were led by Cheer Leader Stanley Gay, who made things lively and to whom credit is due for the splendid showing.

There was a great improvement over former rallies and it must be remembered that the Indians' vanguard was already in Norfolk. There is still room for improvement, however, and everyone is asked to come out tonight, and all other rally nights, so that the fruits of victory will be sweeter when the Indians gather them as they did last week.

Preliminaries For Freshman Con- test Announced

The meeting of the Phoenix Literary Society held last Saturday evening proved to be a success in spite of the absence of several members who attended the football game in Norfolk. An excellent oration was delivered by Mr. Carter, and Mr. Winder volunteered with a declamation that was much enjoyed. The usual debate was dispensed with and the meeting was turned into a business session to consider the question of preliminaries for the Freshman Contest. It was decided that the preliminaries for freshmen readers and declaimers would be held at the regular meeting of the Society on Saturday, November 4th. The preliminary for debate will be held at the following meeting on November 11th, and the preliminary for oration will be held on Saturday, November 18th. All freshmen members are urged to come and take part in the preliminaries, and all freshmen in College, not taking part in literary society, are most heartily requested to connect themselves with the work of this Society in encouraging literary activity among the freshmen as well as the upper classmen of the College. It is hoped that the freshmen will fully realize the wonderful opportunity they have before them of distinguishing themselves in those literary pursuits which constitute some of the principal ear-marks of a well-educated man.

Dr. Kate Waller Barrett Receives High Honors

Dr. Kate Waller Barrett, of Alexandria, a member of the Board of Visitors of the College of William and Mary, has been elected President of the American Legion Auxiliary by the American Legion in Convention at New Orleans, and has resigned as President of the State Auxiliary in order to become head of the national body.

Dr. Barrett is one of the most widely known women in the South and has been the recipient of many honors. She has long been a leader in civic and patriotic activities, having become interested in philanthropic work early in her life.

Dr. Barrett was appointed on the Board of Visitors of William and Mary by ex-Governor Davis in 1921, to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Nathaniel T. Green, and has always taken a live interest in the welfare of the South's oldest college.

Philomatheans An- nounce Preliminaries

Although a large percentage of its members were attending the football game in Norfolk, the Philomathean Literary Society held an interesting meeting last Saturday. Mr. Spivey's splendid oration on the "Horrors of Massacres in Turkey" was exceptionally well prepared and delivered. Mr. Marauda and Mr. Topping read interesting and timely selections. The debate, "Resolved: That the programme of the Society be given over entirely to debate," proved to be unfortunately stated in that it was rather one-sided. However, Messrs. Rhudy and Addington put up a good fight and argued to the last minute, though they were unable to overthrow the strong arguments of Mr. Gilbert and Mr. Binder of the negative. Mr. Gilbert's extemporaneous speaking was the feature of the debate. The meeting tomorrow night will be given over to preliminary trials for debaters for the Freshman Contest. On November 5th, representatives of the Society for oration, reading, and declamation will be chosen. All freshmen members of the Society are eligible to take part in the contest, and an invitation is extended to all men not yet members of a literary society to come and work with the Philomatheans.

ALUMNI NEWS

A. W. Johnson, A. B., William and Mary, '21, is not pursuing graduate studies at Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass. He has recently been awarded a substantiation scholarship by that institution, and plans to spend the next three years there. It will be remembered that he was a student in the Graduate School of the University of Virginia, where he received his Masters degree last June, after the completion of a year's graduate work.

INDIANS MEET HAMPDEN-SIDNEY IN RICHMOND TO-MORROW

Indians Ready For Hampden-Sidney

Dope Favors William and Mary

When William and Mary meets Hampden-Sidney in Richmond tomorrow, a battle to the last blast of the whistle can be expected. The Tiger with his back against the wall, made desperate by his bad start this season, will make a double effort to break into the win column. The Indian, his scalp badly battered by the Tiger in the past years, will go to Richmond with blood in his eyes, determined to recoup his previous losses at the paws of the Tiger and throunce him for the first time in thirteen years.

Although comparative scores make the Indians a heavy favorite in tomorrow's game, the comparative score criterion often means nothing in football. Consider the V. P. I.-Davidson College game last Saturday.

The Indian coaching staff expects a hard fight and has been putting the men through some gruelling workouts during the past four days. The Hampden-Sidney game means a great deal to the College, and no efforts will be spared to gain the victory. The Tigers can always be depended upon to give the Indians a run for their money, and they have the ugly habit of winning, a practice which the team of '22 will try to break up.

The Indian team has fully recovered from minor injuries received in the Trinity game and will start tomorrow's game with few changes in the line-up. Rangely will start at guard, and Charles or Irwin may start at quarterback.

Joyce Levvy played the entire game against Trinity. The Indian camp is overjoyed, for this was the first whole game that Joyce has played in since 1919. A few wise ones thought last season would terminate his football career.

Tennis Match Tomorrow

On Saturday, the twenty-eighth, the courts of the Richmond Country Club will be the scene of a tennis match between the Country Club and William and Mary. Inasmuch as the football team of William and Mary plays Hampden-Sidney in Richmond on the afternoon of the same day, the match will very likely take place in the morning. Six singles and four doubles will be played.

The College is sending Wilshin, J. G. Pollard, Jr., Marshall, Cline, and Peterson, and the faculty will be represented by Professors Counselman, Robb, and Rowe. The eight members of this team are well able to take care of themselves in the ancient game of tennis in amateur circles anywhere.

JOYCE LEVVY
Captain of Football

Wilshin and Pollard have played together in doubles in many tournaments, and they form a combination that has demonstrated its ability to defeat any college in Virginia. The College has three good players in Marshall, Cline, and Peterson. Marshall is from Newport News, where he has distinguished himself in open tournament. The trio from the faculty consists of three able players who are experienced in the game.

Scrubs To Play Apprentices In Newport News Tomorrow

Playing their first game away from home, Coach Bob Wallace's "Fighting Papooses" will mix with the strong Apprentice team of Newport News Shipyard at the League Park in Newport News tomorrow.

The Apprentice eleven is a well coached aggregation and has not suffered a defeat since their game with the William and Mary Scrubs last year.

Saturday's fray will be a bitterly fought contest as each team has won one contest and lost one since the Apprentices have been on the W. & M. Scrub schedule. The embryo mechanics are the blue ribbon boys of Newport News and always draw a large crowd.

Bob Wallace's Own, fresh from their victory over Camp Eustis, are anxious to win tomorrow's contest.

In no sense over confident, Coach Wallace is working the kinks out of his machine and giving them some new plays for Saturday's game. The scrubs will probably line up as they did last Friday.

Team Has Efficient Football Managers

Manager "Scrap" Chandler and his assistants, Gay, Wilkins, Stuart and Bull, have, in no negligible sense, contributed to the present good of gridiron affairs.

Never before has the squad received better individual attention. Injuries are cared for and equipment repaired in a satisfactory manner, aside from a pecuniary saving to the College. This efficiency has its proper influence on the splendid morale of our gridiron warriors.

Trinity Game Financial Success

$1500 is William and Mary's net share of Saturday's gate receipts according to James G. Driver, athletic director and graduate manager. This is the second largest sum the Indians have realized from a football game.

This financial success is due in a large part to Coach Driver's excellent publicity campaign during the week preceding the game.

Here And There

Rangely got in the Trinity game long enough to smear up a few plays including a dangerous pass. Doc will probably start Saturday's game at guard, his natural position.

Hastings duplicated his run of last year when he raced through Trinity for seventy yards. Whitten is a dangerous man when he gets loose and hard to stop at any time.

"Red" Roberts gave another exhibition of his versatility when he played a good game in the full back position last Saturday against Harvard. Two weeks ago some Richmond sport writers dubbed him a "fake" and declared

Roberts to be mediocre at his best. More considerate writers attributed Robert's poor showing in the V. P. I. game to the fact that "Red" was ordered to save himself.

To see Levvy and White run together brings back old memories of the days when the "Bake" Jones and "Monk" White combination terrified opposing elevens.

The Scrubs will deserve plenty of credit if they win their game with the Newport News Apprentices.

Let's get another scalp Saturday. We haven't won from the Tigers in thirteen years.

After throwing a scare into the "Praying Colonels," V. P. I. barely escaped defeat at the hands of little Davidson College and was lucky to draw a 7-7 tie. Kipling dealt out a parable when he said, "You can never tell 'till you've tried 'em and then you are likely to be wrong." Tech will have to come to earth if they expect to win from the fast moving Flying Squadron.

The dope was upset on Saturday when Roanoke College prevented the Spiders from crossing the goal line. The best Richmond could do was two drop kicks for a total of six points. Potter, Roanoke's left tackle, was a former student at William and Mary. He stopped everything that came his way in the Richmond game.

King College, with a student body of ninety-nine, boasts a football team that held Washington and Lee to a 13-7 score and defeated Lenoir College 206-0. Centre College would do well to look to its laurels.

The Yellow Jackets came back last Saturday and won from the mutes 7 to 0.

"Duc": "Is it correct to say, 'Them is'?"

Prof. Jacob: "Indeed not."

"Duc": "Then how would you change this sentence in the book which says, 'Them is a pronoun'?"

OCTOBER 27, 1922

One of the usual features of an inter-collegiate struggle "conspicuous by its absence" from the Trinity game in Norfolk Saturday was that of organized or concerted yelling by the students. The requisite spirit was present, the students and cheer-leaders were present; but due to an unfortunate arrangement, it was impossible for the cheer-leaders to raise a yell that would do credit to a high school. Instead of being grouped together, the two hundred William and Mary students who attended were scattered broad-cast among two thousand William and Mary supporters.

It is suggested that at the Hampden-Sidney game in Richmond tomorrow and at games thereafter a small section of the stands be reserved for students alone; for only in this way can be secured the organized cheering which to many patronizers of intercollegiate games proves as great an attraction as the contest itself.

NAVY DAY

Friday, October 27, 1922, has been designated Navy Day. This, at the suggestion of the Navy League of the United States, is approved by the Navy Department.

The Navy rendered vital service to the nation and to humanity during the World War. No great fleet action was fought to give spectacular emphasis to its vital contribution to the victory. But the convoy, the anti-submarine patrol, the mine barrage, were essential factors in the winning of the war and the saving of civilization. So it has been in every crisis of our history—the Navy has not failed. In the Revolution, the War of 1812, the Civil War, the Spanish-American War, victory without the Navy would have been virtually impossible. Today our peace and prosperity are safeguarded by the Navy. It is an agent of stability in a troubled world. It carries no threat, but it lends authority to America's voice, speaking for altruism, justice and law.

On Navy Day we would celebrate the consecration to duty of the personnel of the present Navy, the glorious services rendered to the nation by the Navy of the past. We would emphasize its unity with every interest and activity of the national life. It is good for the people to stop a moment and consider what has caused the nation's prosperity and greatness. The Navy has played no small part in the progress of America to its present state and influence.

Those who proposed the celebration of Navy Day, who urge upon you what they believe to be an opportunity of patriotic service, are advocates of peace. They believe in and support the policy of reduction of armaments by agreement but reject as absurd the fatuity of disarmament by example. Living in a world of reality they would foster the instrument of their security while looking forward to the realization of the ideal not yet attained when the only security needed by mankind shall rest in the hearts and minds of men and nations.

The Flat Hat takes this belated occasion to express its deepest sympathy to the parents of the late "Red" Lewis, former captain of the Apprentice eleven of Newport News. We knew "Red" as a clean athlete and sportsman of the highest type. Few boys enjoyed as many friends on the Peninsula as "Red" and no one better deserved them. We consider the proposed Apprentice Boys' Memorial to the late captain very appropriate and wish them Godspeed in their worthy effort.

Victrola Used In Spanish Class

Spanish is now being taught through the medium of a Victrola. Tuesday morning, Mr. Patterson had several Spanish selections played for one of his Spanish classes, and it was interesting to note how comparatively easy it was to recognize some of the Spanish words sung. Among these selections were "A la luz de la luna" (In the Moonlight), sung by Enrico Caruso and de Gaborza, being the only record that Caruso has made in Spanish; "Adios" (Goodbye), "Cielito Lindo" (Pretty Little Heaven), and "La Paloma" (The Dove), which is well known to all Americans. It is intended that this performance shall be repeated at intervals to determine the progress of the students in Spanish translation.

MODERN LITERATURE CLASS MAKES GOOD HEADWAY

The modern literature class, organized by Mr. Blanton a few weeks ago, had a very instructive meeting Monday night. A greater number of students are taking interest in the course, and the attendance increases at every meeting. The class is now studying the works of the modern Irish authors.

President of Tennis Club Makes Announcement

"There are two points I'd like to emphasize in connection with the new tennis courts," said Professor Zehmer, President of the newly organized faculty tennis club. "The first is that these courts have been provided so that faculty members may always be assured of a place to play, and not because they don't want to play with the students. The second is that students are at liberty to use these courts whenever they are not being used by the faculty. It is understood, of course, that when faculty members are ready to play, the students will use other courts."

"Through the club, we hope to promote a better relationship between the College and the cities near it. We expect to schedule matches with the Country Clubs of Richmond, Norfolk, Newport News, Hampton, and Petersburg. We want to further interest in tennis in College, so that a larger number of students will be engaged in it than in any other sport."

There are now seventeen members in the tennis club. The first match will be played with the Richmond Country Club, at Westhampton, Saturday afternoon.

"Literary Magazine" To Appear Early In November

The October issue of the "Literary Magazine" will appear early in November. The proof has already been returned to the printer, but as approximately one thousand copies will be printed, the printing and binding will require some little time.

The first issue of the magazine is composed primarily of articles from old contributors. Among these contributors are Miss Marguerite Jenkins, Mr. R. G. Davis, Miss Kohout, Mr. J. D. Carter, Miss Slaughter, Mr. L. C. Green, Mr. I. H. White, Mr. R. E. Kennard and Mrs. Norma Flanders. In addition to these writers, there are a number of authors appearing under "nom de plumes."

A feature of the magazine this year will be a serial entitled "Cobweb Cove," which will not be concluded until the final issue of the magazine.

The cover design of the magazine has been changed to conform to the standard of the popular magazines of the day. There will appear on the front of the cover several selected articles and their authors.

Reporters At Work

The race for a position on the reporting staff of the "Flat Hat" is now beginning in earnest. While some of the first entries have dropped out on account of lack of time, four new men have signified their intention of becoming candidates and have started to work. These are E. C. Jones, M. W. Gill, Jr., John Wood, and R. G. Haile. Two weeks remain before the close of the contest, and there is still time for a hard-worker to make the staff.

Monogram Club Dance

Despite the fact that many of the students who attended the game in Norfolk did not return Saturday night, the Monogram Club dance in the gymnasium of Jefferson Hall was a success. The attendance was good, the music by Phillips' Jazz Lizzards was snappy and full of pep, and nobody was sorry to be there.

Miss Dixon Elected Manager

Miss Julia Dixon was elected by a large majority of the Women's Athletic Council Tuesday to fill the office of manager of the 1922-1923 basketball team, a place made vacant by the resignation of Margaret Tuthill.

With so many new girls, who are reported as being star players, and our old standbys of last year, great things are expected of this year's team.

INDIANS VICTORIOUS OVER TRINITY

executed a pretty pass for Trinity's only score.

Indians Recover

In the fourth period Trinity attempted further gains by an aerial attack, but were able to complete only two short passes out of several tries. In the last five minutes of play, Jordan recovered a fumble by a Trinity halfback on the Methodist's forty-yard line. Sweeping end runs by Captain Levvy and Monk White carried the ball to Trinity's fifteen-yard line. There Levvy attempted a field goal which failed. The game ended with William and Mary in possession of the ball on the Trinity twenty-yard line.

Captain Levvy and White gave beautiful exhibitions of skirting the ends and bucking the line from all angles. Hastings' run for seventy yards was the spectacular feature of the game. Todd, Chandler, and Parsons performed well in the line. Chalkey and Jordan starred as ends.

For the Methodists the Smith and Neale passing combination was outstanding. Hatcher, Trinity's tackle, displayed a wonderful fighting spirit when, after being taken out of the game with a dislocated shoulder and being placed under the influence of ether and worked on by surgeons, returned to the game in the second half and played a good brand of football. The Indians expected to play a fighting team and they were not deceived.

The line-up:

S. I. N. A.

Washington and Lee University is soon to have a separate endowed school of journalism if the plans of the Southern Newspaper Publishers' Association come to maturity. The Association, at its last convention held at Asheville, N. C., in July, resolved to carry the plans to completion.

Washington and Lee was one of the first schools in this country to give attention to the study of Journalism. Newspaper writing was offered as a course of study there during the presidency of General Robert E. Lee.

* * *

Staffs of the three publications at Washington and Lee University have recently effected a journalistic organization known as Iota Nu Kappa. The constitution which was adopted requires two years service upon one of the campus publications as a qualification for membership. At present there are twenty-six members.

O. D. K. Entertained

Professor and Mrs. Williams were hosts to the Omricon Delta Kappa Fraternity at their home on last Tuesday night. The first part of the evening was taken up with a business session, at which time, plans were discussed for the coming year and for placing Omricon Delta Kappa on the footing it should hold at William and Mary.

Epsilon Circle of the University of Richmond has invited the William and Mary Circle to attend the football game between the University of Richmond and Randolph-Macon College on November the fourth and to a dinner party afterwards. It is felt that there is an urgent need for a feeling of closer friendship and unity between the colleges and especially between the circles of the fraternity. It is to be hoped that much good, both to the fraternity and to the colleges, will result from this meeting.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Williams, assisted by Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Young, served delightful refreshments to the guests. The next meeting will be with Professor Young.

Artists! Attention! Colonial Echo Needs You

The following drawings are needed for title pages in the Colonial Echo:

Fraternities
Seniors
Juniors
Sophomore
Freshmen
Football
Baseball

These drawings we want done in black and white only, and they should be about twelve by nine inches. In order not to waste time and material, I suggest that the artists competing for the several title pages submit to me small, neatly drawn sketches, suggestive of the final drawing. Drawings shall be chosen on a competitive basis.

Originality is what we want throughout our Annual. When possible, sketches characteristic of William and Mary are preferred. We are further emphasizing humor. So do your work accordingly.

Later titles for more drawings will be given out in a few days.

For information, suggestions, annuals of different colleges, see J. G. Pollard, Jr., Editor-in-Chief.

EDITOR, COLONIAL ECHO.

Y. W. C. A. Masquerade

All girls are invited to come to the Y. W. C. A. masquerade that will be held in Jefferson Hall tomorrow evening at eight o'clock. Come masked and prepare for fun, more fun than you have had for a long time. One of the many attractions will be fortune telling. Fortunes will be told by three means, cards, writing, and palm reading. You will hear ghost stories that will make the shivers run up and down your back. Do you believe in ghosts? If not, come to this masquerade and it will be proved to you that ghosts not only exist, but are lurking in the nearest corner. A prize is offered for the best costume. Come and get the prize.

STUDENT OF WILLIAM AND MARY SUMMER SCHOOL KILLED

Miss Pauline Grace Johns, age 20, was instantly killed Tuesday morning at 8:50 o'clock by an express train near Norfolk, while attempting to cross the track ahead of the oncoming train.

Miss Johns attended the past session of the summer school at William and Mary and is remembered by many who were here at the same time.

She was engaged as a teacher and was on her way to school at the time of the accident. Miss Johns was highly esteemed by those who knew her, and her sad death is a deep regret to many here who were associated with her during the past summer.

(Full account in the Ledger-Dispatch of Tuesday evening.—Editors.)

SIGMA UPSILON MEETS TONIGHT

The first meeting of Sigma Upsilon Literary Fraternity will be held tonight at 10 P. M. in the Main Building. Several important matters are to be discussed, and a full attendance is expected.

NEW OFFICES IN BRAFFERTON

The offices of the President and Treasurer have been moved from the Main Building to the second floor of the Brafferton Building.

Although it is not known exactly what use will be made of the old office space, it is thought that either another class room or some offices for the faculty will be placed there.

Norfolk With Us

Norfolk was with us Saturday, judging by a window display in one of her department stores. The window was dressed with football gear of every description, and at each corner of the window, there was a William and Mary pennant.

INDIAN SPASMS

"Duc" Frances: "These eggs taste strange."

Tucker: "Aw, don't laugh at those eggs, you'll be old some day."

Upper-Class: "Believe I'll go to the window to see if Bob is on the Deanery porch."

Duc: "Oh! Does he room over there?"

"That's a dirty trick," said the bullfrog as he turned a flip into a mud puddle.

EVEN SO, BROTHER!

Which is the worse between me and thee,

The man who tries and fails;
Or the man who says, "Why can't you see?"

And himself never soils his nails.

Why stand back and criticise
The failures of those who dig!
The job no doubt has lots of size,
Yet to you it don't seem big.

When you feel you know the way
Of how a thing is done,
No doubt you'd gladly praise
The awkward working one.

Take a suggestion, it may be good
In regard to your fellow-hood.
Let's throw a cloak over the sins
they've shown,
For it may take a circus tent to cover our own. —H. T. M.

I once heard an ugly lady,
With exceeding lack of grace
Say to a pretty lady:
"There's nothing in a face."

At once within my childish brain
A great big puzzle grew.
And I went investigating
To see if this were true.

If a face did not much matter,
Then I thought that I would try
To swap off all the faces
Of the neighbors passing by.

First came along Miss Rosy Roy,
Our village belle so sweet;
She seemed a perfect baby-doll
A-tripping up the street.

Then next, with slow and steady pace,
Head up and chin choked in,
Long and lanky, slow but sure,
Came Miss Polly Susan Prim.

I tried to swap but—ah, alas!
All vain doubts I did shed;
I could not put Prim Polly's soul
Into sweet Rosy's head!

Yes, thus it was with all the folks
On whom my keen eyes lit;
Faces and personalities,
They naturally fit.

And though I tried so very hard
To change them round about,
Not one personality
From its owner I could rout.

To me this seemed more curious
Than a boy who will not sup,
Why didn't our Creator
Get some of us mixed up?

—E. T. B.

Michigan's Girl Students Are Given Free Rein

Newly Appointed Dean Decrees They May Roll 'Em Down, Bob Hair, Bead Eyelashes And Rouge Plentifully

They can roll 'em down, bob their hair, bead their eyelashes, and rouge plentifully, as far as Miss Jean Hamilton, newly appointed dean of women at the University of Michigan, is concerned. Miss Hamilton considers such things unimportant and believes that the girl of today has the right to live her own life, and make her own social code. Miss Hamilton is a graduate of Vassar. She issued the following statement:

"After all it is not a moral issue, this powdering and painting and bobbing of hair. I do not see why such a fuss is made over it. Older people, I fear, who are interested in young people make the mistake of criticizing the nonessentials instead of the essentials.

"The modern college girl is filled with the spirit of the age. And we realize that women, as well as men, have the inherent right to live the life of their own choice.

"Higher education has led girls to question parental authority, after a certain point, and as a result parental authority, as such, has lost much meaning to the average full-grown girl of this age.

"Proof of that fact can be found in all of the large cities. There college girls in large numbers are living their independent lives in the inconvenience of small apartments, rather than submit to what they consider the tyranny of parents in commodious homes. These girls are carrying on a great experiment that is testing the virtue of the new theory of living.

"If the old plan of blind obedience is correct, we will return to it in the natural course of events, but the new theory as demonstrated by the edly hold for at least a generation.

"Concentration," said the stude, in answer to the Prof's question, "is sitting down at your desk with an open book before you, placing an eyeshade on your brow and trying to think where you can get a date for tomorrow night."

"Duc" Patient: "Hey, that wasn't the tooth I wanted pulled."

Local Dentist: "Calm yourself. I'm coming to it."

"Duc" Jones (seeing pictures of Dempsey-Carpentier fight at Palace): "Bet you five dollars that Carpentier wins."

"Duc" Gill: "Nothing doing. I'm pulling for Carpentier too."

What other pen dare you lend to your roommate?

What Other Point Serves 25 Years?

THERE'S a pardonable dislike to lending the ordinary fountain pen, lest the other fellow's way of writing foul the point, or turn it. Not so with the new Parker Duofold. This lacquer-red classic holds its original point regardless. For this is real native Iridium, set in extra thick gold—as smooth as a polished jewel bearing. And we guarantee it for wear and mechanical perfection 25 years!

And when you consider that the student averages four fountain pens a year, you can see that the Duofold at $7 is the most economical pen you can buy. One Duofold will do all your four years' college work and still be good for your life's career when you graduate.

When first you lay eyes on the black-tipped, lacquer-red Duofold, you'll recognize something handsomer than gold. Its big, balanced barrel and super-smooth point will thrill your hand with "writing urge!" You'll not be surprised that 62 men in 100 picked the Duofold first from a tray of assorted pens.

You'll see many Parker Pens at college this year. Come in and pick out the point that suits your hand—extra fine, fine, medium, coarse or stub. Then take the Duofold on 30 days' trial. Money back if you are not delighted.

Organized Cheering At Games Urged

The matter of organized cheering at football games, whether on the home grounds or in other towns, is a matter which deserves more than passing consideration. Much of the fight and pep shown by teams in action has the origin in a realization on the part of the players that the students are behind them, and in no other way can this be so effectively brought home to them as by well organized cheering.

Those of us who attended the game in Norfolk on Saturday could not fail to notice the lack of concerted cheering upon the part of William and Mary supporters. There were a large number of students and younger alumni present who would have been glad to help with the cheering, but there was no section of the stands reserved for them, and it was impossible for them to get together. The students who attended the game were scattered hither and yon, some standing around the ropes, others on the other side of the field, all of which was due to the failure to provide a section for them.

There is plenty of spirit in the student body; those of us who attend the games away from home are willing to put all we have into the rooting, provided arrangements are made for us to get together and show some sign of organization. Disorganized cheering from students and supporters scattered through the park is very well, but it shows a lack of interest upon the part of someone.

If we expect to win from the Spiders on Thanksgiving Day, we must get together, yell for all we are worth, and let the team know beyond doubt that we are there. We are willing. It is up to those who have charge of the arrangements to let us have a section of the stands reserved. But we do not wish to sacrifice our privilege of seeing the game, and for the sake of organized cheering, be placed away in some remote corner of the field. It is a game of the College and for the College, and the students should be given a desirable section where they can see and yell.

Ingram, H. B. Hughes, Dr. W. T. Hodges, Athletic Director, J. G. Driver and J. E. Wilkins. In addition, Fred Shawen, member of William and Mary's first football team, Dr. Fay Sinclair, and former Coach Burke recounted interestingly their reminiscences of early football days. A large number of alumni attended the meeting, and many suggestions were offered, one being that Cary Field be turfed so as to permit of more strenuous practice.

A spirit of whole-hearted cooperation permeated the gathering, the alumni evidencing their willingness to go to any lengths to meet the undergraduates and the college authorities half way in the support of William and Mary's teams and athletic policy.

It is believed that the alumni in other cities will now fall in line and will organize in a similar manner in order to support most efficiently the policies of their Alma Mater.

Pictures At Palace Theatre This Week

4:00, 7:30 and 9:00 O'clock

MONDAY

Pola Negri, the charming and versatile cinema star, will be seen in her latest production, "The Eyes of the Mummy," at the Palace Theatre on Monday. The story is filled with adventure and romance, and Miss Negri, in the lead, has a part in which she is at her best.

TUESDAY

Mechanical contraptions that are as grotesque as the ridiculous dreams one sometimes has, may be found in the new Max Linder feature comedy, "Be My Wife" which is Tuesday's feature at the Palace.

WEDNESDAY

Bert Lytell is the star in "The Face Between," which will be shown at the Palace Theatre on Wednesday. Lytell is a universal favorite and in "The Face Between" he is seen in an entirely new role.

THURSDAY

Undying faith that believes in a man who has lost faith in himself is the dominant note of "Love's Redemption," Norma Talmadge's latest First National starring picture, which will be shown on the silver sheet Thursday.

FRIDAY

"The Man From Home," which was produced from Denman Thompson's great play, is a feature film that should appeal to every man, woman, and child in Williamsburg. An all-star cast is seen in this interesting story, which is filled with bits of life throughout.

SATURDAY

"Big Stakes," with Tom Mix, as the star, will be shown at the Palace Theatre on Saturday. Tom Mix is undoubtedly the most popular portrayer of Western Roles, and in "Big Stakes," he performs lots of new stunts.

the perpendicular sides. This means that the addition will have the same height as the present building has, but the addition will be so arranged as to have three floors of steel book-stacks, with a capacity of 150,000 volumes, whereas the present stack room (the rear wing of the present building) has only two floors of stacks, accommodating 30,000 volumes.

The present stack room will be improved and remodeled into an additional reading room and an office for the librarian.

When the work is completed, the library will have a superior system of indirect lighting throughout, and will be strictly modern. The question of how soon the new building will be ready for use, rests with the contractors, Messrs. Harwood & Moss, of Newport News.

The Carnegie Corporation is to be thanked for its gift of $25,000 to William and Mary for this addition to the library.

This enlargement will create a larger field in which Librarian E. G. Swem will have opportunity to continue his efficient work.
